

ADMONISHMENT STATEMENT

1. You have a right to remain silent.
2. If you give up the right to remain silent, anything you do say can and will be used in court against you.
3. You have the right to speak with an attorney of your choice before questioning, and to have the attorney present during questioning.
4. If you cannot afford an attorney, one will be appointed for you by the court prior to any questioning, if you so desire. The attorney will not cost you anything, the services are free.

Question 1:

Do you understand each of these rights that I have explained to you?

Question 2:

Having in mind and understanding your rights as I have told you, are you willing to talk to me?
